

SUNDAY, APRIL 23

GREEN FAITH DAY

DC Days of Interfaith Youth Service

At a Congregation Near You

Events:

- Request the interfaith community to make Sunday, April 23, Green Faith Day.
- Provide Green Faith resources to D.C. faith-based communities to encourage energy efficiency and positive environmental change.

GreenDC  Week
Think Green DC! April 17-23, 2006

Contact: phone 202-673-6750 email andre.javier-barry@dc.gov web greendcweek.net

SUNDAY, APRIL 23 GREEN FAITH DAY

GreenDC  Week
Think Green DC! April 17-23, 2006

The interfaith community in the District plays a significant role in day-to-day life and has a notable voice in the realm of social and environmental justice. As GreenDC Week comes to a close, this will be an opportunity to examine energy efficiency and environmental sustainability through the lens of the various faith traditions represented on this day.

Daytime Event

Interfaith youth service project to clean up Kingman Island on the Anacostia River.
1:30 pm. Registration is required.
Call 202-234-6300 x200

Partners: Earth Conservation Corps, Earth Day Network, Greater Washington Interfaith Power & Light, InterFaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington, Interfaith Works, Opening Minds, Points of Light Foundation, Religious Partnership for the Anacostia, United Religions Initiative